

§ 2.2

non-federal litigants to the same extent and in the same manner that they are available to the general public. The availability of Department of Health and Human Services' employees to testify in litigation not involving Federal parties is governed by the Department of Health and Human Services' policy on maintaining strict impartiality with respect to private litigants and to minimize the disruption of official duties.

(c) This part applies to state and local court, administrative, and legislative proceedings and Federal court and administrative proceedings.

(d) This part does not apply to:

(1) Any civil or criminal proceedings where the United States, the Department of Health and Human Services, and any agency thereof, or any other Federal agency is a party.

(2) Congressional requests or subpoenas for testimony or documents.

(3) Consultative services and technical assistance provided by the Department of Health and Human Services, or any agency thereof, in carrying out its normal program activities.

(4) Employees serving as expert witnesses in connection with professional and consultative services as approved outside activities in accordance with 45 CFR 73.735-704 and 73.735-708. (In cases where employees are providing such outside services, they must state for the record that the testimony represents their own views and does not necessarily represent the official position of the Department of Health and Human Services.)

(5) Employees making appearances in their private capacity in legal or administrative proceedings that do not relate to the Department of Health and Human Services (such as cases arising out of traffic accidents, crimes, domestic relations, etc.) and not involving professional and consultative services.

(6) Any matters covered in 21 CFR part 20, involving the Food and Drug Administration, and 20 CFR part 401, involving the Social Security Administration.

(7) Any civil or criminal proceedings in State court brought on behalf of the
